“ Don, So very sorry to hear about the loss of your mom. I Know it is tough, been 4 years today since I lost my mom. As I think back, your mom had a special place in my life. Of all the people in the world that may have seen me play ball games, My mom saw me the most. But I'd say your mom was a close second on that list of folks seeing me (and you) play sports, from Little League to State Tournament. Remember the good times with your mom. Praying for you, Scott, and the family.

“ I remember Mr. Baker carrying me to a bed at their house when mother went to hospital to have Terri. Mrs. Baker was a wonderful mother to us kids on Yankee Street. Loved her so much. Sending prayers to Scott, Don, and their families. Her, mother , and Mrs. Carskaden are having a cup of coffee together I'm sure. ❤️
