“ Jean, Keith, and Bob, I was sorry to learn of Coy's passing. I met him in 1969 when I began work as Factory Office sec. at 3m. Coy, being in that office, I became his secretary along with several other gentlemen. He was always fun to be around and it was a joy to know him. He will be greatly missed. My prayers are with you all.

“ Aunt Opal told me that when Uncle Coy was deployed in Korea, Mamow would watch for the mailman every day. When the mailman would drive past the house and not stop Mamow would cry. There was no letter from Junior.
One day family members were visiting and they saw some man walking up the road. I think it was Martha, she ran into the house and said, "It's Junior and he's a man now!"
