“ It's always so sad to loose someone like Mr Herbert and I pray the Lord Gives peace and comfort to all his family who he loved dearly.I remember talking with him about that trip he tried to take to Wyoming. He just had to go but I believe a snowstorm or ice prevented him from his total journey. He was bold and determined to go see the big country. He is now seeing much better than the big country. We will miss him. One of my favorite people. God will surely have great conversations I am sure . I am sad to miss the visitation but a bout with covid recently prevents me from safely being in crowds.
