“ When I was 16 years old I got saved while Bro. Jimmy Martin preached at my home church in Green Rock, Illinois. I will always treasure that memory. My sister Carolyn also got saved in that same service that Bro. Jimmy preached. I remember going soul-winning with Bro. Jimmy. He taught me some good things about how to greet folks. I remember when Bro. Jimmy had me come and preach at the mission church in Kokomo, Indiana around New Years. The new building was not completed, but enough to hold services. It was extremely cold and a lot of snow on the ground. We had communion and feet washing at midnight on New Years Eve. Jimmy and Margene have always welcomed Lucy and I into their home. Love the Martin Family and you have our prayers with you.
