“ Sister Mary Jo was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. I believe that she loved as much like Jesus as she could. I cannot think of many times that she was not at the church when the doors were open, only when sick or visiting her children did she miss. She was definitely a lady to look up to! She will be missed deeply by our family! We loved her and always will! Our prayers and deepest sympathy are with Brother Jimmy, and all of her family.
