“ Keith, I’m so sorry this is so late. Your sweet sister and I had rekindled our friendship from working together at Parisian Riverchase Galleria back in the late eighties and had plans to get together but never made it happen. She loved you and your daughters so much and spoke so highly of you, I hate that this has happened. My father was a dentist in Vestavia for almost fifty years and my sister, Caye McCulloh Griffin, a hygienist for him and later, Dr. Mallory in Helena for many years. Missy and I had spoken of my meeting you and my dad and Caye knew of your expertise in prosthodontistry and both had great respect for you. I lost my dad, Calvin, in May of 2019 and my Mom, Shirley, on April 1st, 2020...I had plans to introduce Missy to them and their health began failing in 2019. Missy was precious to me and I can’t believe she’s gone. I will miss her, we had talked of traveling to France and had both met Oscar De La Renta on a special occasion at Parisian. I’m so sorry, Cole McCulloh

“ You always liked the “piece of bread” opening from my living room to the dining room area. I remember watching the opening ceremonies for the early 90’s Winter Olympics with you. I think you fixed spaghetti. Sleep well.❤️
